Our Mission

As a licensed Home for the Aged, Westwood Inn is proud to be part of the next chapter of your life. We believe that our residents can lead vibrant and purposeful lives within our community.

Not only will they receive high-quality care, but they will interact with our engaging Westwood Inn staff that understands and respects their individual needs. We prioritize the health, safety, and happiness of our residents above all else. When you're here, you truly feel at home.

Our mission is to be the preferred senior living community, dedicated to encouraging a fulfilling lifestyle where we serve our seniors with dignity and respect in a home where they feel valued and recognized.

Our Core Values

Respect. Fostering trust and mutual admiration in our conduct.

Integrity. Doing what is right, for the right reasons, whether anyone will know.

Greatness. The capacity to live by the fundamental values of reason, purpose, and self-esteem.

Humility. Consciously making an honorable choice to forgo our own status and put the well-being of others before ourselves.

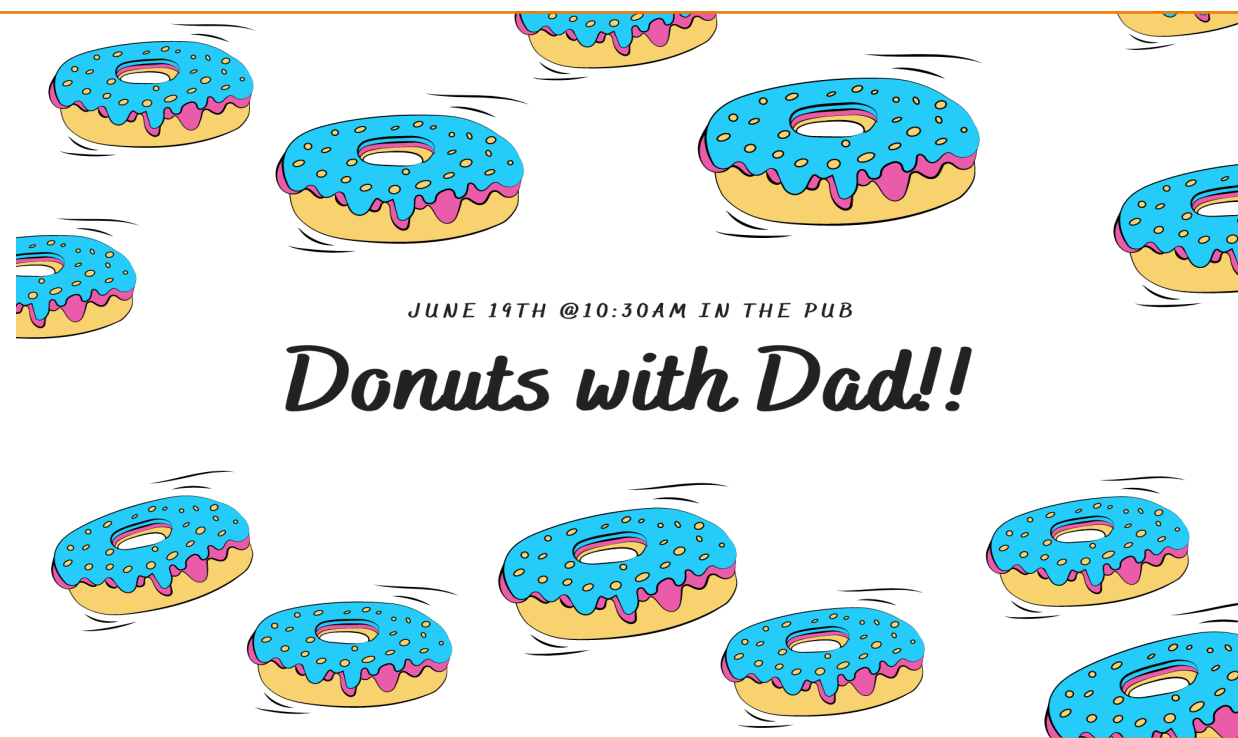

Trust. You can rely on someone and be comfortable with their care because you feel safe with them.

Associate of the Month

Tim Jackson

Thank you for being dedicated, loyal and always exemplifying our core values and commitment to serving our community.
